DEDICATION

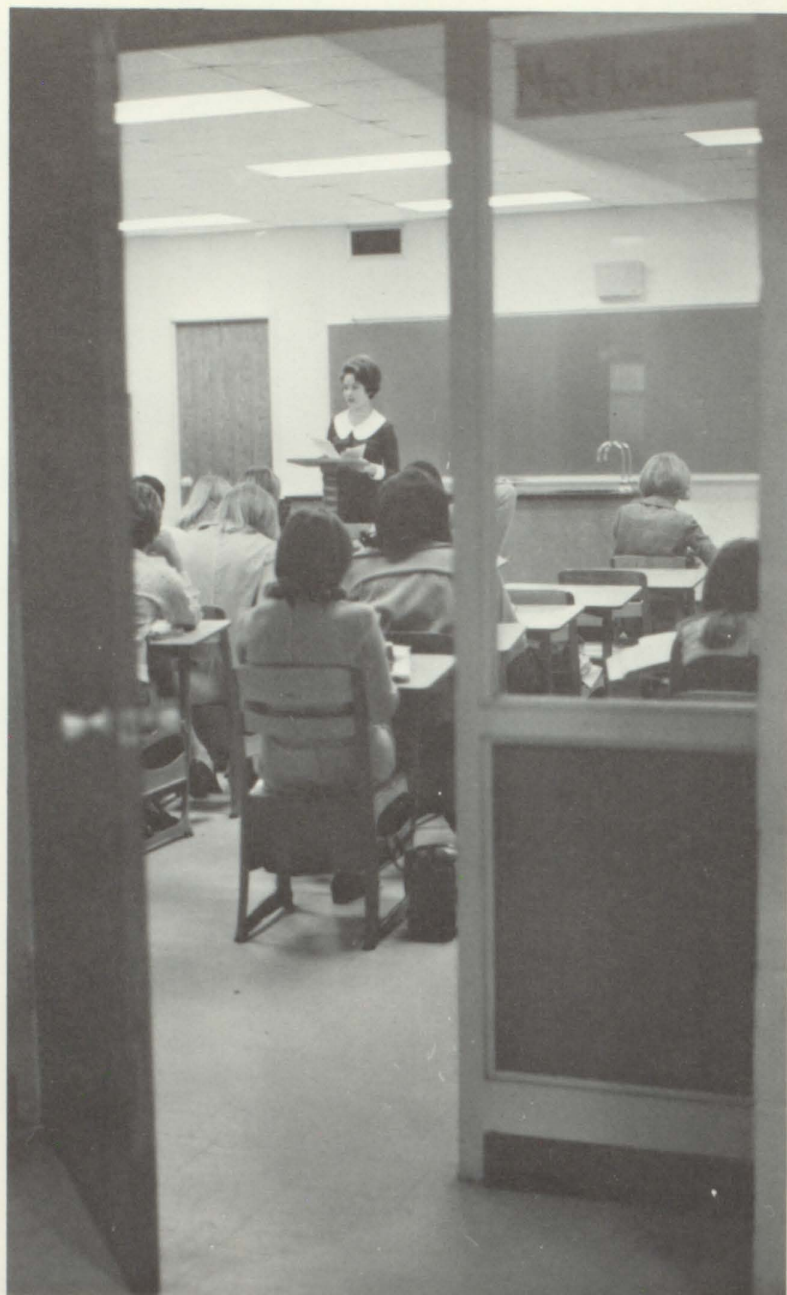

The traditions they have established will always remain a memorial to the class of '70 but the annual staff wishes to commemorate them further by dedicating the nineteen hundred seventy Markseter to the first class who has spent its whole high school life at Marksmith and Lasseter.

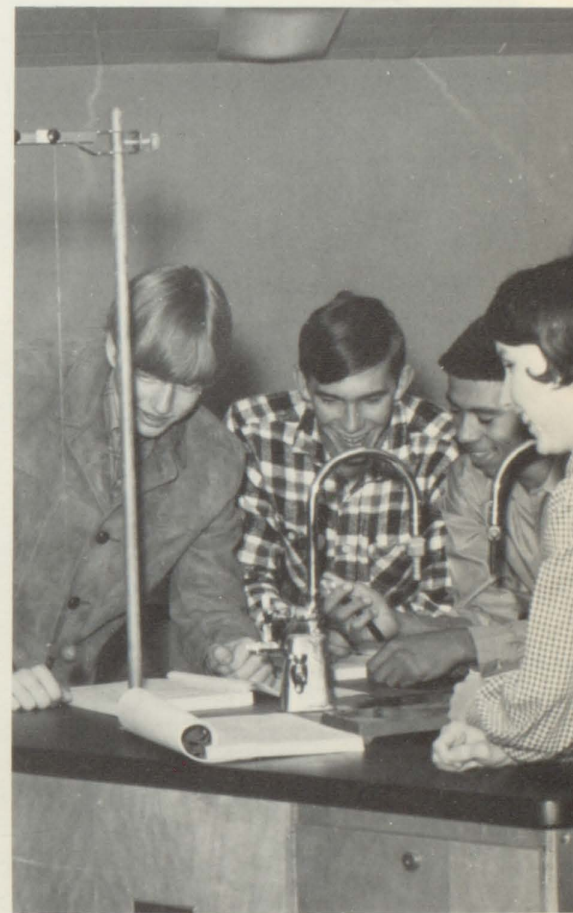

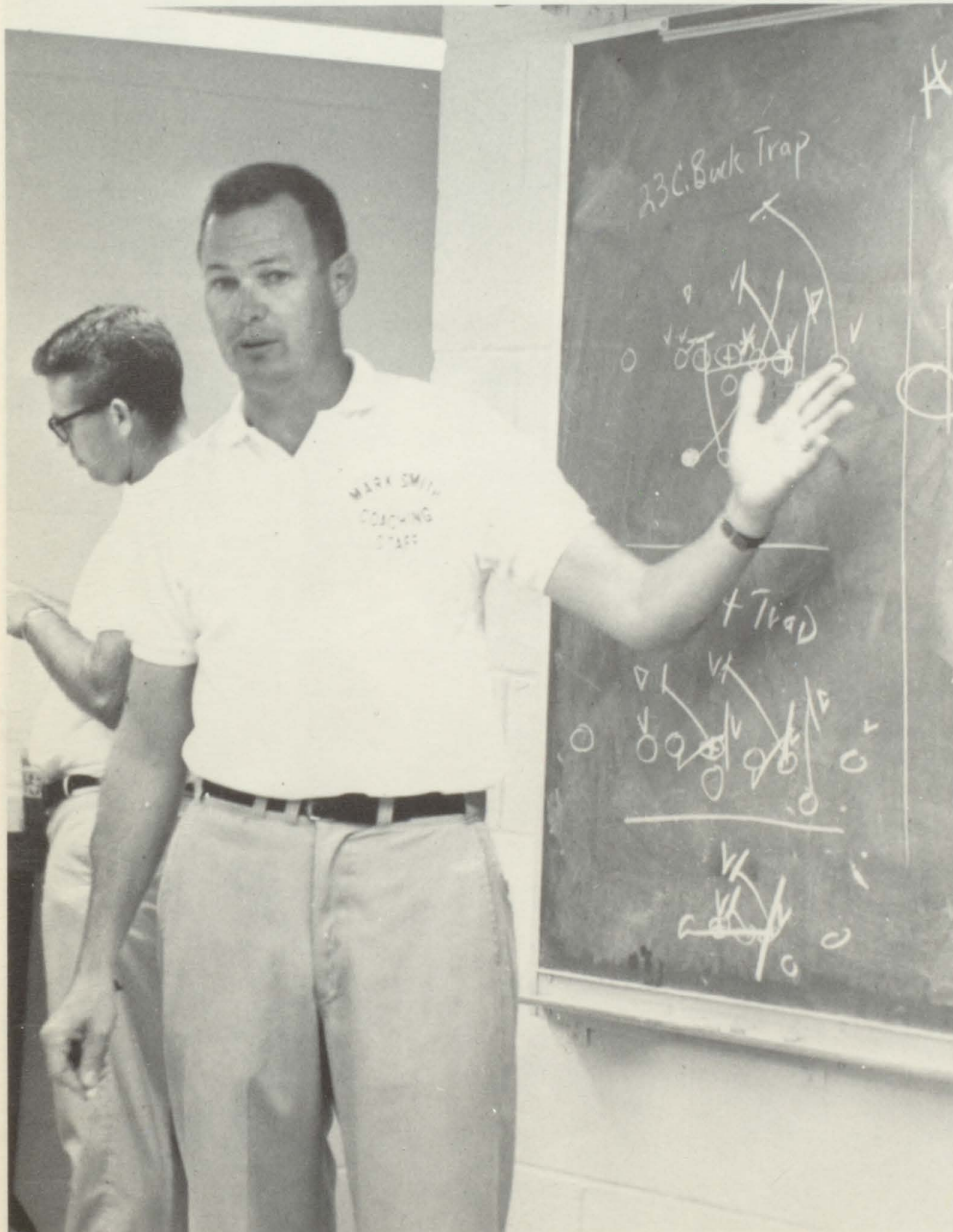

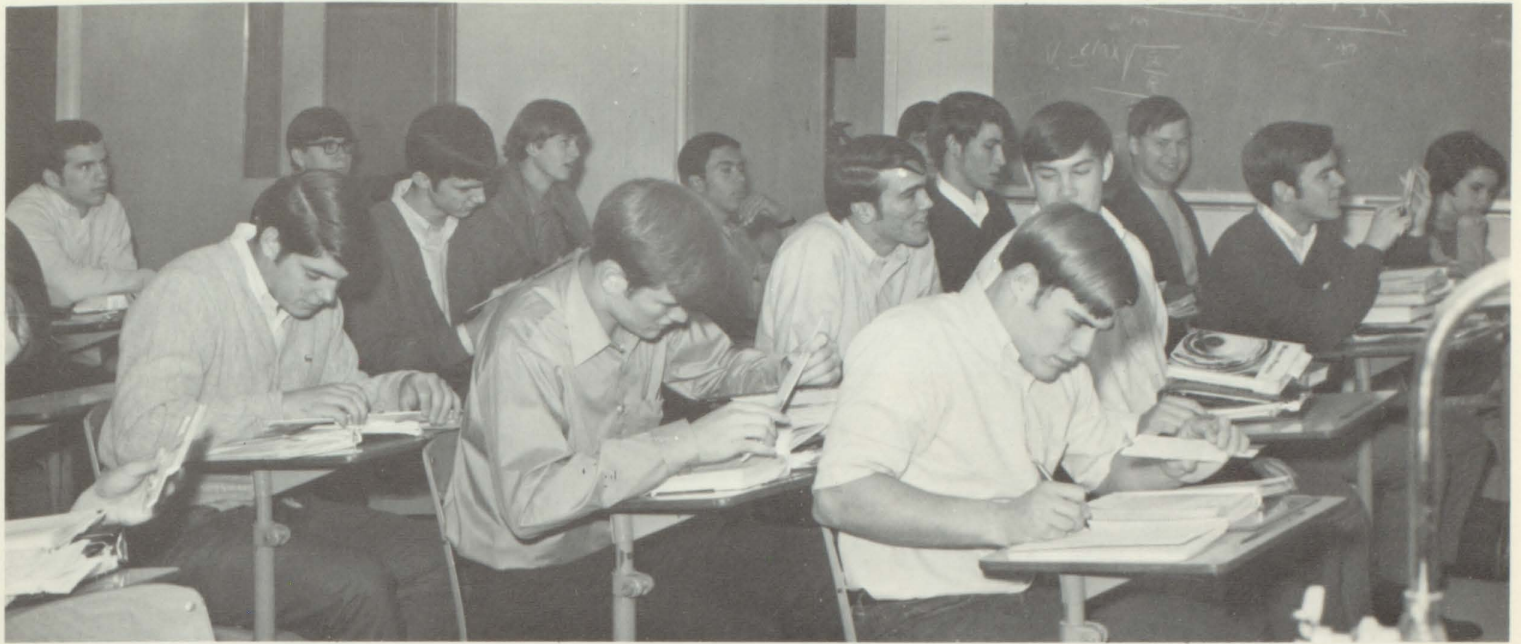

In September of the year nineteen hundred and sixty-five a new breed of people was born, "... and the seeds of greatness were planted within." These seeds were to develop into unique individuals whose accomplishments would awe people for generations to come.

Upon entering the spring of their high school lives at Mark Smith and Lasseter, these special students were instilled with noble ideals and worthy goals by principals, counselors, teachers, and coaches. With this encouragement, the class of '70 began to distinguish itself as a proud harmonious group. Some were outstanding in scholarship, some in athletics, and all in school spirit. Learning not only from their outstanding feats, but, also from their failures they gradually reached maturity.

As the season of autumn, the harvest season, drew near the Seniors realized that their dreams had materialized, due to their independent efforts and through the magic of the cooperation of all. Also, they had discovered who they were and what they were capable of doing. Plans for the spring of a new life began to unfold in their minds. All would follow their own ambitions—the world of business, college, or homemaking. But always, the Seniors will remember the times they spent together when the days seemed years long and others when the years seemed to be rushing by—the struggles and the happiness. Yes, Seniors ... "Those Were The Days."

"I saw your face and heard you call my name."

"The busy years went rushing by us."

You see things as they are, and you ask "Why?" But I dream things that never were, and I ask
"Why not?"

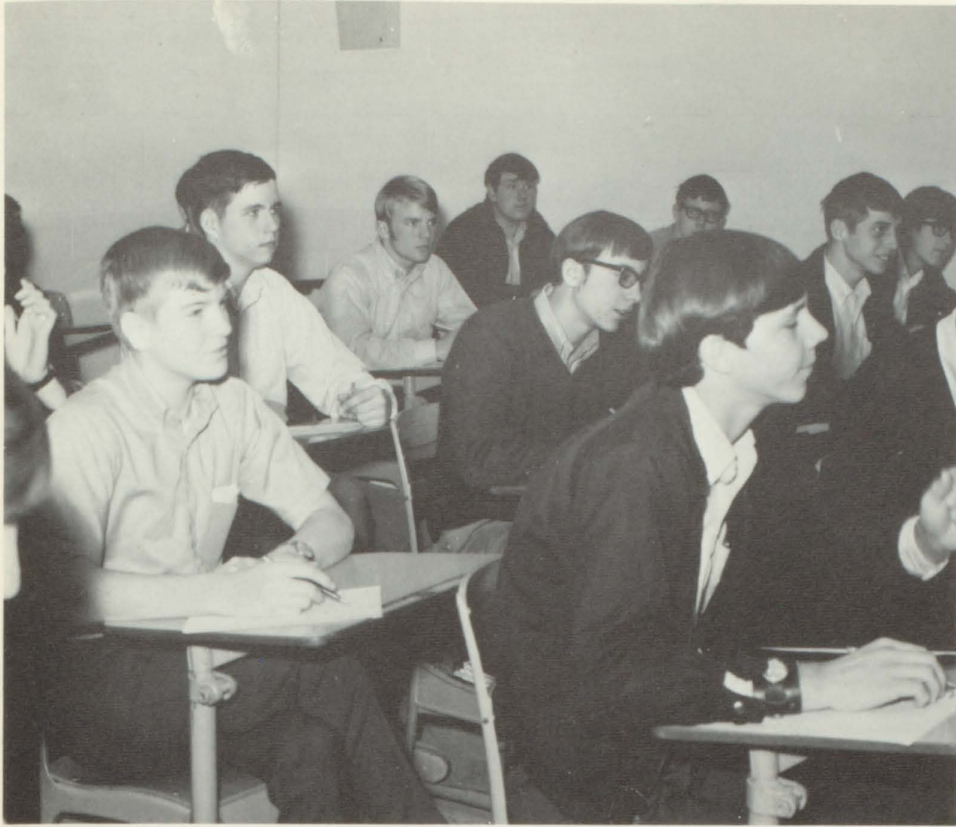

Each of us will remember the past in our own ways. But we all will remember most the times we shared with others ... the hours of success ... the moments of defeat. We are able to recall with clarity those days which have since affected the personalities of all of us.

“Through the door
there came familiar laughter.”

MAN WALKS ON MOON

"For we were young and sure to learn our way."

"I saw your face and heard you call my name"

A special relationship exists between teachers and students at Mark Smith and Lasseter which makes it necessary for each individual teacher to have his own method of communication. Teachers are challenged to inspire students to listen instead of just hear, to see not just look, and most important to participate and not merely watch.

In Memoriam To Samuel Lloyd Newberry

Christian gentleman, dedicated teacher, able administrator! His was a life of outstanding service to his family, his fellowman, his community, his country, and particularly to the youth of Bibb County who were fortunate to have him as a teacher of mathematics and physics during his thirty years of active service in the Bibb County School System. He possessed that innate ability to impart knowledge and challenge the best efforts of the hundreds of young men who passed through his classes. He inspired "love of learning" and through exemplary conduct and devotion to high ideals, he developed excellent character and encouraged noble principles in the young people who came under his influence.

“Through the door there came a familiar laughter”

Frowns are not foreign to Mark Smith and Lasseter because disappointment is always a part of every student's high school life. But through cooperation and individual effort the students solve their problems. Thus, a prevailing atmosphere of happiness became tradition at Mark Smith and Lasseter.

Juniors

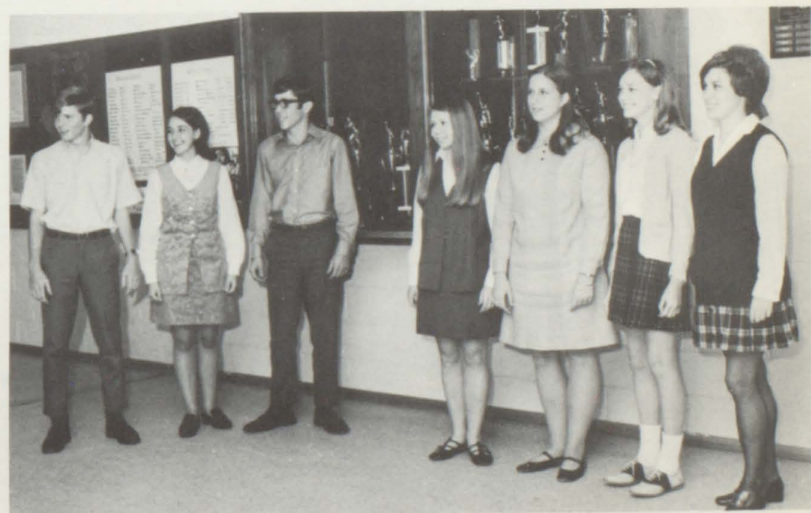

Past experience and expectation of the future made the Juniors an eager and spirited class. They were aware that the climax of all their efforts and dreams was drawing near, for soon, they would be the leaders of the schools.

“We dreamed of all the great things we’d do”

Many of our hopes and ambitions have been achieved this year. But many of our aims will be realized only in the future as we develop and mature. Some of the students will become great through their own abilities. But let us remember that we make the greatest impact when we are united for a common cause. Through cooperation as a group we shall be able to shape history. We must strive to make our accomplishments meaningful to those who come after us.

Alfred Johnson scored on a pitchout against Warner Robins.

"Mr. Destructo," John Skalko, and Steve Bailey team up to make tackle.

The Mark Smith football team, under the leadership of head mentor, Minton Williams, enjoyed its best season in triple "A" competition this year. The Bulldogs' defense and the potent offense developed into a team that possessed a 6-3-1 record. After the first weeks of practice the squad elected four captains, Steve Bailey, Mike Kitchens, John Skalko, and Dirk Thomas to lead them during the 1969 campaign. Their contribution and inspiration helped the Bulldogs reach their incentive . . . to be the best ever to wear the Red and Black.

Like most successful football teams, the Mark Smith Bulldogs were aided by many outstanding individuals. John Skalko, line backer, and Mike Kitchens, tackle, led the rugged defense, while the explosive offense was led by powerful Dirk Thomas and speedy Alfred Johnson. Even with these and other outstanding individuals the team could not have been as successful this year without relying on their strong cohesive team effort.

The 1969 football season for the Mark Smith Bulldogs proved to be the most successful since the team's first year playing triple "A" football as the Bulldogs came out on the winning side with a 6-3-1 record for the season. The team drilled hard during the spring of last year and two weeks prior to their first game with Ballard Hudson. After beating Ballard Hudson easily, the Bulldogs battled Jordan to a 14-14 tie. The Lanier Poets and the Columbus Blue Devils handed the Bulldogs their first defeats, with the scores of 36-6 and 12-0 respectively. However, the mad Dogs took great leaps and became a fine football team in winning five straight victories highlighted by a 12-6 triumph over Willingham. The defense was the stalwart of the team as they gave up only 124 yards in those five games.

Billy Cox lowers the boom on Appling QB.

Anderson drives for two against Ballard Hudson.

The Mark Smith Bulldog Basketball Team, led by Captain Charlie Anderson, had a strong season after getting off to a slow start this year. With great depth the Bulldogs had a strong bench and were able to alternate without trouble. Three returning starters in David Lee, Cam Bonifay, and Anderson proved to be the shell of this fine team.

After losing three games before Christmas, the Mark Smith Bulldogs showed signs of the 1968-69 State Champs as they rolled along to a 3-3 record going into the Tom Porter Invitational Tourney. The Bulldogs gave Willingham and Appling impressive defeats and once again met the strong Ballard Hudson Tigers. The Bulldogs were defeated and took home the second place trophy. The spirit and desire of the cages was evident as they streaked on to win five straight contests.

“We were young and sure to learn our way”

The youth of our day are the leaders of tomorrow. Some how, some way we must be exposed to leadership opportunities. In our organizations at school, the students are given the chance they need to develop into leaders as well as followers. The paths we follow in our high school days must direct us toward the future, with the idea that what we are and what we do will affect our children and their children in the years to come.

Student Council

The main objectives of the Student Council are to promote democracy as a way of life, to contribute to the education of the students and to develop in the Lasseter and Mark Smith students desirable attitudes and practices of good citizenship.

(L-R) Vice President, Margaret Clay; Treasurer, Patricia Crumbley; Secretary, Connie Colhard; President, Fran Grant; Advisor, Mrs. Maxwell.

Student Council

Student Councils sponsor service projects and special assemblies and programs in which the entire student body participates.

Beta Club

Dedicated to the pursuit of knowledge, the Beta Club gives recognition to those students who have developed good character and have shown commendable intellectual achievement. As leaders and scholars these students are extremely active providing valuable services to the entire school.

A black and white photograph of a large group of young women, likely a cheerleading squad, posing in a gymnasium. They are arranged in three rows: the back row is standing, the middle row is kneeling, and the front row is sitting on the floor. A basketball hoop is visible in the background.

A black and white photograph of a girls' basketball team. The team consists of 18 girls posed in three rows in a gymnasium. The back row has eight girls standing. The middle row has seven girls kneeling. The front row has three girls sitting on the floor. A basketball hoop is visible in the background. The girls are wearing various styles of sweaters, vests, and skirts, typical of 1970s school uniforms.

4-H

"To make the best better" is the motto of the 4-H Club. Valuable training of the head, heart, hands, and health is the main objective of the members. Their colors are green which is representative of spring time, life, and youth; and white for purity and high ideals.

M u s i c C l u b

Lasseter Music Department

The voices of our youth sing out and proclaim to all who stop to listen our hopes, our ambitions and also our fears. The Lasseter Junior and Senior high Chorus are examples of how people can exist in harmony with one another and not create a constant discord. Besides these groups, the Junior High Sextet and the Choraliers specialize in ensemble arrangements.

Y-Teens

A group which strives to make a better world for tomorrow is always unified by a sense of fellowship and love. The Y-Teens is a noteworthy example of this unity. A large number of social events are held each year which are sponsored by the Young Women's Christian Association.

Standing: Patty Nelson, Ethel Brown, Shirley Battle. L-R Seated: Mrs. Weber, Linda Nixon, Lydia Mitchum, Sherdena Randall, Miss Young.

Art Club

The purpose of the Lasseter Art Club is to encourage the appreciation of art in the school. Creative displays which brighten our halls and artistic advertisements of upcoming activities are evidence of the imaginative talents of the members.

COMPUTER PROGRAMMING CENTER

fast food service

Applications

are now being considered for territories throughout the United States to establish fast food service units to be operated under the name, James Brown's Gold Platter. Franchise holders will benefit from the popularity of James Brown, the black "soul singer," who has produced over 20 records each with sales passing the million mark. They will also benefit from the guidance of a staff of experts in food service, site selection, procurement, job training, advertising, publicity, and financing. James Brown Gold Platter units will have a unique building design, feature a distinctive menu and be backed by a sound promotional program designed to appeal to all races.

Minimum cash requirement per unit $25,000.00. Phone or write—Franchise Director, James Brown's Gold Platter / P.O. Box 782 / Macon, Georgia 31202

*funet, It's been a lot of fun knowing you these years. If you happy maybe we can have more fun in the future!
Lots of love

HOUSE OF QUALITY FOOD

We have known each other for about 10 years or more. I think that you are one of my dearest friends. We have had some good times together, and I remember the time we went to be flags! What a time. Janet, you will never forget I wish you mean to me. Be good to the boys. Love ya, Dickie Shays
